

Job Description

View Jobs Side-by-Side: Administrative Support

Job Function and Family

Job Function: Organizational Administration

Job Family: Administrative Support

Facilitates results through management and support of business practices and policies in order to effectively manage University resources and programs. Organizational Administration includes activities such as business operations, facilities, academic/research programs and/or student services.

Provides general administrative functions and assistance, which may include communicating with internal and external stakeholders, preparing documents and reports, compiling records, scheduling meetings, organizing and maintaining information, coordinating calendars, composing correspondence and other documents, analyzing data.

Job Code: U00061

FLSA Classification: Nonexempt

Pay Grade 4

Min $37,752

Mid $47,190

Max $56,628

Hourly Min 18.15

Hourly Mid 22.69

Hourly Max 27.22

CSA No

Job Description Title: Administrative Support Assistant II

FLSA Classification

Organization Level

Job Level: OC2

Complexity of Work

Level Criteria	Level Criteria (Job Family-Specific)
Performs functions moderately complex in nature and recognizes the need to apply various methods to accomplish tasks. Work consists of activities that are typically routine, with some deviation from standard practice, requiring some innovation or creativity.

Communication

Level Criteria	Level Criteria (Job Family-Specific)
Some exchange of information with other internal departments or work groups is required to perform role. Based on nature of the role, may frequently field requests from others in the organization or externally.

Operational Latitude and Impact

Level Criteria	Level Criteria (Job Family-Specific)
Work is performed under general supervision except for new assignments. Sets priorities for performing work and managing time to complete tasks. Decisions typically impact own job function (generalists) or specific work area (specialists).

Knowledge

Level Criteria	Level Criteria (Job Family-Specific)
Applies general knowledge of the organization, job content, practices and procedures. Has acquired the knowledge and skills necessary to be proficient in all aspects of job.

Education

Level Criteria	Level Criteria (Job Family-Specific)
High school diploma or high school diploma equivalency is required.

Experience

Level Criteria	Level Criteria (Job Family-Specific)
Minimum of 3 years of relevant experience, or equivalent combination of education and work experience.

Family/Stream Principal Responsibilities

• Performs a variety of administrative duties including document preparation, scheduling, meeting and event coordination, travel arrangements, website updates, record keeping, supply inventory and data entry.
• Creates and updates departmental files, databases and reports.
• Provides guidance and assistance as needed to students, faculty, researchers and other staff on policies, practices and procedures.
• May oversee the work of students.

Principal Responsibilities for the Job

• Responds to and supports on routine and non-routine inquiries from faculty, staff, students, alumni, public, and external agencies using knowledge of department/university policies, resolving issues or escalating as needed.
• Composes replies to complaints and information requests, ensuring accuracy and policy adherence.
• Prepares, edits, and distributes agendas, minutes, contracts, proposals, and presentation materials using specialized knowledge.
• Reviews data, summarizes information, and prepares recurring/special reports for departmental decision-making.
• Maintains departmental websites and communication platforms to ensure current and accurate content.
• Organizes and maintains physical/digital records, files, and databases for efficient retrieval.
• Monitors and restocks office supplies; processes purchase orders following departmental procedures.
• Maintains calendars, prioritizes appointments, and coordinates meeting logistics (venues, travel, materials).
• Refers specialized issues to appropriate staff and collaborates on workflow improvements within immediate team.
• May assist in budget tracking, reconciles expenditures, and follows up on discrepancies for departmental accounts.