

Job Description

View Jobs Side-by-Side: Researchers and Scientists

Job Function and Family

Job Function: Research

Job Family: Researchers and Scientists

Explores and discovers answers to challenging questions. Develops, facilitates, implements, evaluates, performs, administers and oversees a wide variety of research programs or initiatives.

Manage, conduct, and support research, education, and outreach needs of the University by providing highly technical services and specialized instrumentation or equipment in a shared resources environment. These facilities (core facilities, shared resources or service centers) adhere to a designated usage rate by the Rate Studies group within the Financial Services office. Staff oversee equipment use, offer expert research design advice, generate quality data, ensure regulation compliance, and manage lab operations.

Job Code: U01271

FLSA Classification: Exempt

Pay Grade 8

Min $59,404

Mid $74,254

Max $89,105

Hourly Min 0

Hourly Mid 0

Hourly Max 0

CSA No

Job Description Title: Researcher/Scientist III

FLSA Classification

Organization Level

Job Level: PC3

Complexity of Work

Level Criteria	Level Criteria (Job Family-Specific)
Issues are strategic in nature, are varied, and involve evaluation and interpretation. Problems may require the development of new approaches, methods or techniques, requiring significant innovation and creativity.

Communication

Level Criteria	Level Criteria (Job Family-Specific)
Works to influence others within and outside of the job function regarding policies, standards and processes. To perform role, communication typically occurs within the college, division or department and may occur externally as well. May require the ability to communicate with management and leadership, and other key stakeholders.

Operational Latitude and Impact

Level Criteria	Level Criteria (Job Family-Specific)
Work is performed independently except for new projects or concepts. Work is reviewed to ensure objectives were met. Might supervise 1 - 2 individuals who provide operational support.

Knowledge

Level Criteria	Level Criteria (Job Family-Specific)
Extensive knowledge and use of principles, theories and concepts of a job function. Complete knowledge of all job functions and the broad industry best practices, techniques and standards.

Education

Level Criteria	Level Criteria (Job Family-Specific)
Bachelor's degree or equivalent advanced learning attained through professional level experience required.

Experience

Level Criteria	Level Criteria (Job Family-Specific)
Minimum of 5 years of relevant work experience, or equivalent combination of education and work experience.

Family/Stream Principal Responsibilities

- Develops, plans, designs, and conducts research. Reviews progress and evaluates results. Coordinates laboratory and field work including lab equipment management. - Formulates research methods. Develops or collaborates in the development of new techniques, methods, and equipment. - Contributes to ensuring regulatory compliance of the research program by coordinating with granting agencies and regulators as required by research program. - Evaluates current and future technologies. - Participates in the acquisition of research funding by initiating and writing grant proposals. - Participates or authors articles in peer-reviewed journals, books or chapter publications. Participate or presents at conferences.
---	--

Principal Responsibilities for the Job

- Performs some or all of the duties of Research Professional I-II - Utilizes specialized in-depth expertise to coordinate and administer specific programs. Knowledge and experience required to deal with strategic issues - Performs work with extensive knowledge and utilizes University systems department tools with proficiency - Provides input on program development and processes - Knowledge of and experience with other colleges and the University as a whole - Routinely provides input regarding department programs. Subject matter expert in specific career industry - Plans and leads work of multiple staff performing varying responsibilities. Leads lower-level staff and may supervise. Oversees day-to-day operation of project - May make recommendations for improvement to management - May build and deliver training - Develops, designs, and conducts one or more small or moderately complex research projects in line with plan. - Responsible for operation of a specialized research area or lab. - Formulates research methods and develops research criteria. - Participates in acquiring research funding including writing grant proposals. May co-author and may co-present results with principal investigators at meetings or conferences.
---	--

